Also known simply as EFT

You can have tuition payments automatically deducted from your checking account!
Your payment to Kumon is always on time! That makes Mr. Shippee happy too!
Save time! Out of town? Busy? Forgot?
No problem – your payments are automatically deducted on the 28th of the month.

It's Easy to Enroll!
-Only One Form per Family -

I authorize the Stoll Park Kumon Math & Reading Center to initiate variable data entries to my account identified below in payment for Kumon monthly tuition ($100) per student per subject. I understand that Kumon will debit my account on the 28th of each month (or the next business day if that date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or national holiday) for the following month's tuition. I authorize my financial institution identified below to debit my account each month in amount of $100 (one student subject) or $200 (two student/subjects).

I understand that I am in full control of my payment, that I have a right to hold or stop this electronic payment simply by giving Kumon timely notice, and that I may revoke this authorization by notifying Kumon by the 25th of the current month to be effected for the following month. In addition, I will immediately notify Kumon of any changes in the information provided on this authorization form. There will be a $15 penalty for bank rejection (such as for insufficient funds or incorrect account information). All such items returned to Kumon are subject to an automatic debit from my account including a maximum returned check fee as permitted by law.
